No title is required to enter, and handlers may enter more than one dog. Dogs in this class may be handled by the owner or any other person, and may be entered in another class or classes. Each handler may choose to skip one exercise and receive full credit for that exercise. When checking in, the handler must inform the steward or judge which exercise will be skipped. If an exercise is skipped, it cannot be performed. If the handler chooses to perform all of the exercises, all will be scored. The exercises will be performed in the same order as the regular Novice class. The point values for the exercises, scoring, and maximum total points are the same as the regular Novice class.

The Utility exercises will be performed and judged as in the regular Utility A class, except that verbal praise during the exercises is to be encouraged and not penalized. (Good, yes, nice, super, great, attaboy, are some examples of praise that would be allowed.) Handlers may give additional commands, but they will be penalized accordingly. Each handler may choose to skip one exercise and receive full credit for that exercise. When checking in, the handler must inform the steward or judge which exercise will be skipped. If an exercise is skipped, it cannot be performed. If the handler chooses to perform all of the exercises, all will be scored. The exercises will be performed in the same order as in the regular Utility A class. The point values for the exercises, scoring, and maximum total points are the same as in the regular Utility class. Handlers are allowed to praise their dogs during the performance of all Utility exercises except the signal exercise

RANDOM REWARD CLASSES (NOVICE, OPEN, & UTILITY)

The RANDOM REWARD class is for any dog that can perform the exercises for the chosen class and that is eligible under the Obedience Regulations to compete in AKC events. No title is required to enter, and handlers may enter more than one dog. Dogs in this class may be handled by the owner or any other person and may be entered in another class or classes. The R/R class exercises will be performed as in the regular class, except that verbal praise during the exercises is to be encouraged and not penalized. "Good, yes, nice, super, great, atta boy" are some examples of praise that would be allowed. Handlers may give additional commands and encouragement without being penalized. Handlers will not be allowed to hold up a class with excessive encouragements and Judges will have the option to end any exercise. Each handler may choose to A) Skip one exercise or B) Choose to do that exercise but the handler may now be allowed to leave position anywhere in that exercise, go toward the dog and reward with a toy or petting/praise. (Toys may not make noise or be an item that would roll into another ring. Also, the judge may have the option to end the exercise if the handler and/or dog is disruptive to the other ring when the dog is being rewarded.) The toy must be held by the handler from the time s/he enters the ring until s/he exits the ring. When checking in, the handler must inform the judge or steward which exercise will be selected to skip or selected to go and reward the dog. The exercises will be performed in the same order as the regular classes. The (R/R) Random Reward non regular classes will foster confidence for exhibitors and their dogs by allowing one reinforcement of a desired skill. The Random Reward classes will be an entry point for juniors and new exhibitors to gain experience and confidence. By offering Random Reward Classes, exhibitors will now be able to have ring experience praising and rewarding the dog (with a toy) in an actual AKC Obedience Ring
